"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. AKER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City.

ASSAULTED THE POLICE.

Policeman Neal Has to Club a Disorderly Man.

In Martin's Ferry about 10 o'clock last night Tom Padden, a saloon keeper, Brock Browne, a glassworker, and Maud Smith and Ivy Wilson were all riding in a buggy. Police Officers Och and Neal saw them driving down First street at a right lively speed, and overtook them at Jefferson, where the four were arrested.

Och took charge of Brock and Maud and Neal started toward the lockup with Padden and Ivy Wilson. The latter said she had some medicine for a lady near by, and asked permission to take it to her. Neal, supposing the lady was sick and needed the medicine, said, "That's all right," and the three started toward the house. Just after Ivy entered Padden struck Policeman Neal on the left ear and Neal struck him a hard blow on the nose with his fist. Neal says that Padden struck at him twice after this and that Padden said "I'm going to do you," the same time reaching toward his hip pocket.

During the scuffle Neal's nose dropped to the pavement and he seized this and struck Padden a couple of times. Padden was then taken to the lockup, with his forehead and nose cut, and Dr. B. O. Williams put in several stitches.

The Wilson girl escaped and went to Wheeling. Brown and Maud White were both locked up.

When Padden was taken to the jail he kicked on going in a cell, but was placed there. Neal says he thinks Padden had a revolver and he was justified in clubbing him. When searched no revolver was found.

THE NEWSPAPER MEN.

The Approaching Meeting of the State Press Association.

The time is drawing near when the West Virginia Press Association will hold its annual meeting in Wheeling, May 8 and 9. The indications are that there will be a good-sized delegation of the pencil-pushers of the state on hand.

It will be necessary for the local newspaper men to take steps preparatory to entertaining them, and to make other arrangements. A meeting of the newspaper men of Wheeling has therefore been called to take place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the INTELLIGENCER editorial rooms, when the various committees will be named, and a programme of entertainment laid out. It is important that a full representation be present at this meeting, as the time in which the work of preparing for the reception of the delegates to the meeting must be done is short.

Joseph Sweeney's Hearing.

Yesterday Joseph Sweeney had his hearing before United States Commissioner Campbell on the charge of passing counterfeit money. Four of the charges were inquired into, and he was held in each in $4,000 bail, which he gave. The witnesses for the fifth charge did not appear, the leading one being sick, and that case was dropped for the present.

Malaria is one of the most insidious of health destroyers. Hood's Sarsaparilla counteracts its deadly poison and builds up the system.

The man who called sarsaparilla a fraud, had good reason; for he got hold of a worthless mixture at "reduced rates." He changed his opinion, however, when he began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pays to be careful, when buying medicines.
